Reading Groups

Reading group library membership entitles the group to:

- Access the full collection of reading group book sets.
- Online account access to enable self-service management of book set reservations.
- Free online reservations for reading group book sets.
- Extended issue period of 8 weeks for reading group book sets.
- Information regarding reading groups in local libraries may be displayed or put in Community Information Folders.
- Information on website for reading groups including useful websites, links and offers from publishers.
- Free use of library buildings as venues for Reading Group meetings

Information regarding Reading Group membership:

- Reading Group Sets consist of 10 books (unless otherwise stated in the catalogue) In order to ensure that all groups receive their reserved sets complete and on time the sets must be borrowed and returned as complete sets.
- Any missing or damaged books will be charged at the standard book replacement cost <https://www.gloucestershire.gov.uk/libraries/library-charges/>
- Overdue notifications will be sent where applicable but no fines will be accrued.
- If books are overdue group lending rights may be blocked until the matter is resolved.
- Reading Groups can only borrow specified reading group sets with their reading group card.
- Extra titles and alternative formats may be available but should be borrowed by individuals using their personal library membership card.
- A group can have a maximum of 2 active reservations at one time.

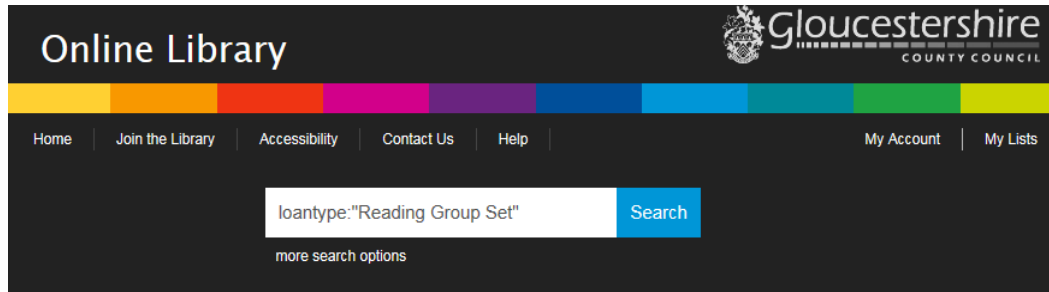

Ordering books for your Reading Group:

Please ask in your local library if you need any help getting started with this process.

- Visit the library catalogue (not the app) to browse and reserve your next reading group set: <http://capitadiscovery.co.uk/gloslibraries>
- Go to the Browse... links on the left hand side of the home page and select the Reading Group Sets link.
- Alternatively, type the following short link into your browser to go straight to the books: bit.ly/glosRGsets
- Navigation options include filters down the left hand side, sort options in the drop down to the right or selection of a specific page number from the bar at the top and bottom of the list.
- We have more than one set of some books. Each set is represented by one item line in the catalogue. If there are two sets you will see 2 lines. Image 2 shows an example where one set is available and one is currently on loan, due back 13th March.
- To reserve a set, log in with your reading group card number and PIN, find a title and click: Reserve this item
- You can also login to create and save a list of books for future by clicking the save button instead.
- It is important to be flexible with your book choice.
- We recommend selecting a title with no reservations that is showing Status: available. This will ensure it reaches your chosen collection library within 1-2 weeks.
- If you do reserve a set that is on loan or already reserved you will go into a queue and we cannot guarantee that you will receive the books when you require them.
- The status will give some indication of how long it will take to get hold of the set.
 - Available = Set is available for loan

Reviewed 11/09/18

- Due back = The set is on loan and due back at a library on the given date
- In Transit = Set is between sites – it is best to avoid reserving in transit sets as the display does not indicate if a set is in transit to a book group for collection or returning to library headquarters.
- As a guide, the process of reservation, collection, loan & return can take up to 12 weeks (assuming the books are returned on time)
- When your set arrives at your chosen collection site an email notification will be generated and sent to the email address in your reading group account.
- A reserved set will be kept at a library for up to 2 weeks pending collection.
