We have a member of staff who leads Forest School sessions every week. The children are taken off site in groups of ten and given opportunities to explore, challenge themselves and be creative in a safe forest environment. They have a wide variety of experiences e.g. Using tools/ fires/ climbing trees. (Crossreferenced with Dimension 6 – Observation, Assessment and Planning)

Exploring mud and water in the mud pit	Challenges are set up for the children to access independently - Here a child is learning to balance and walk along a rope.

Example:

We held a Forest School week where all children took part in activities in our Forest. We sent out a letter to parents/carers explaining what their child would need to bring with them and used pictures to support those who find it difficult to read/read English. After sending this letter out there were many parents who were interested in joining in the session with us so we had lots of adult support. It was wonderful to see the children and adults enjoying the forest together.
