

Dear Sirs

We write further to our e-mail dated 18 December 2018.

We have been instructed on behalf of Gloucestershire County Council ("the Council") to disclose the Residual Waste PPP Project - Value for Money and Affordability Analysis ("the Report"), the disputed information in the case, in full. Please note that there is a single exception, redacting the name of the individual at Ernst and Young who wrote the Report. This is on the basis that this is personal data and the Council do not have a legal basis or consent to disclose such personal data in line with its data protection obligations. We trust that this will be acceptable to the Commissioner, and the Tribunal. We therefore attach a copy of the un-redacted Report to this e-mail.

The Council has made the decision that the harm disclosure of the Report within the public domain would cause to the Council (and its contractor), has reduced significantly given the time that has now passed. The Council has also provided a guide to accompany the Report to assist members of the public reviewing the calculations and granular financial detail contained within the Report. A copy of this is also attached for Mr Davies reference. Both the Report and this accompanying guide will be made available on the Council's website in due course.

As the Report has now been disclosed in full to all parties, there is no disputed information left within this case. Therefore, we respectfully request that this Appeal is withdrawn. We would be grateful for the Tribunal to confirm the withdrawal at its earliest convenience.

Yours faithfully
