Statement of Reasons

Proposed Waiting Restrictions
Prestbury Road 2019
Cheltenham

Proposal
Double yellow lines (No waiting at any time) are proposed along sections of Prestbury Road and an unnamed road

Reasons
A new residential development has been constructed on land just off Prestbury Road, Cheltenham. Double yellow lines are considered necessary to ensure that access for all vehicles is maintained at the junction from Prestbury Road to this new development and the existing commercial premises. Double yellow lines will ensure that vehicles can flow freely without blockage on either side of the Highway and that visibility and safety are not compromised.

Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984
The County Council are using for the implementation of the proposed scheme as above are encompassed in the following sections of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984:

- Section 1 (a) for avoiding danger to persons or other traffic using the road or any other such road or for preventing the likelihood of any such danger arising.
- Section 1 (c) for facilitating the passage on the road or any other road of any class of traffic (including pedestrians).
- Section 1 (f) for preserving or improving the amenities of the area through which the road runs.

In addition, thorough consideration was given to the factors set out in Section 122 of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 in proposing this Traffic Order.

Traffic Signs Regulations and General Directions 2016
All of the associated signing will be in accordance with Traffic Signs Regulations and General Directions 2016.

Equality Act 2010
Thorough consideration was given to the equalities duty of the County Council under Section 149 of the Equality Act 2010.

Statutory Consultation
The Police, Ambulance Service, Fire Service, Borough Council, Road Haulage Association and the Freight Transport Association have not raised any objections to the proposals.
