

Make your own Marvellous Map

This beautiful map is of Gloucestershire. It was made in 1604.

When learning about local history, a map is a great place to start!

What can this map tell us?

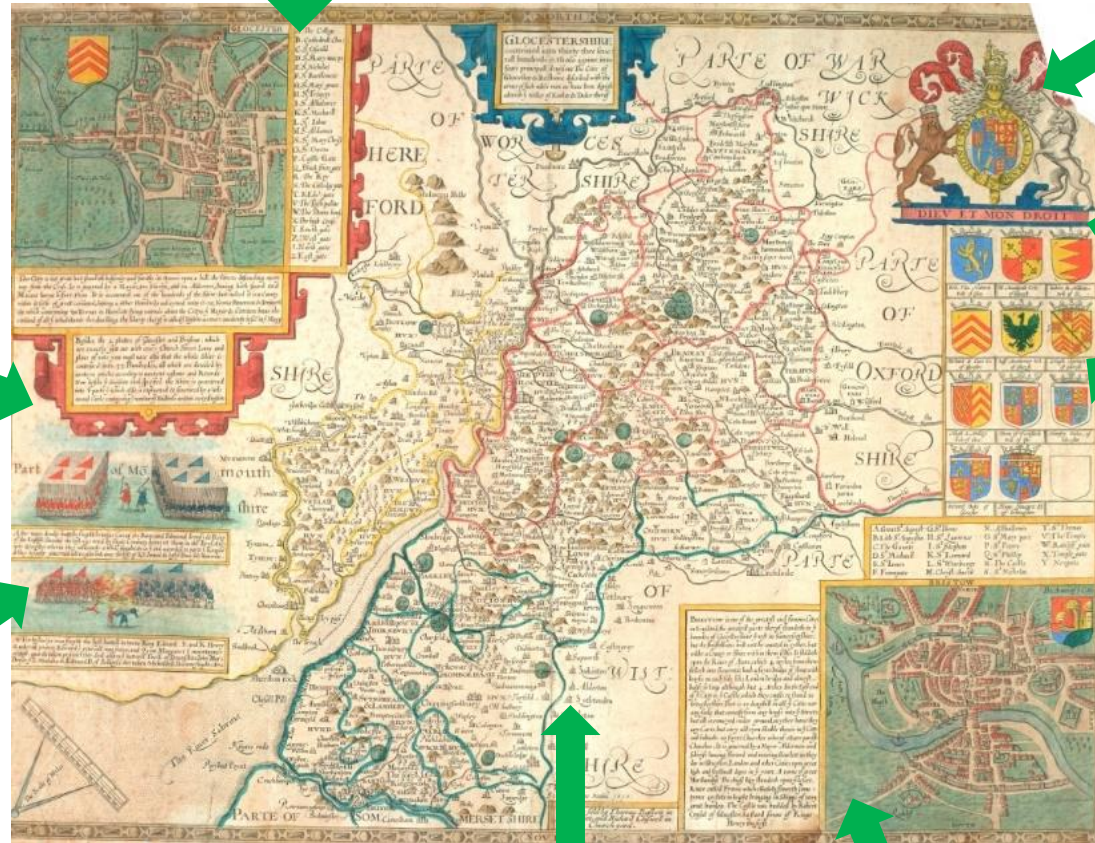

2 pictures of famous battles which took place in Gloucestershire.

The top picture shows a battle at Alney Island near Gloucester, which took place in 1016. King Cnut, the Danish King, defeated Edward Ironside, the English King.

The bottom drawing shows the Battle of Tewkesbury which took place in 1471. It was part of the Wars of the Roses.

A plan of the city of Gloucester including the churches, and a description of the city

A shield bearing the Royal coat-of-arms of the United Kingdom flanked by a lion and a unicorn.

The motto, written in Latin, says 'God and my right'.

The coats-of-arms of local Earls and Dukes as well the Royal arms

Places, boundaries, some roads, rivers and some features like mountains can be seen

A plan of the city of Bristol including the churches, and a description of the city

Go to the next page to make your own map!

Make your own map

You could include:

Natural features such as hills, rivers, fields, trees and lakes
Man-made features such as roads, churches, shops, houses
Local information & history

gloucestershire.gov.uk/archives

We would love to see your work.
Please send us a picture to our email
archives@gloucestershire.gov.uk

