

Order making authority's response to representations

Five representations in support of the order were received after the expiry of the 28 day statutory period for objections or representations to the order. A response was sent to each of the supporters acknowledging receipt of their comments.

A further email or letter was sent to each person who made a representation or objection to inform them that the order was being submitted to the Secretary of State for confirmation.