Dear Consultant or Specialist,

The person mentioned above has applied for a travel concession on the basis of having a disability which has a substantial and long term adverse effect on their ability to walk.

The Transport Act 2000 defines this as "having a physical disability, or has suffered an injury, which has a substantial and long-term adverse effect on their ability to walk". This is clarified in more detail as set out in the options below.

Please tick the box(es) that apply to this person.

- They are unable to walk a single step or their only way to get about is to swing through crutches.
- (Whether with or without an aid) they cannot walk for distances over 64 metres without severe discomfort at the time or later as a result of walking the 64 metres.
- They cannot walk 100 metres within 5 minutes.
- They are unable to walk very far and the effort required to walk is likely to lead to a serious deterioration in their health, needing medical intervention for them to recover.
- The effort required to walk would constitute a danger to their life.

OR they will be ineligible if

- This is currently not a permanent Disability, and they have suffered from this disability/injury for less than 12 months
- I am unable to confirm that any of the above options apply to this person.

Please tick box:

- If this is a permanent Disability or
- If not a permanent disability, is likely to last for 5 years or more.
