Provider Update 74 - 9 May 2025

Dear provider,

This week seems to have flown by, with the Easter holidays just gone and May half term not far away, it feels as though there just isn't enough hours in the day! Although I do think we should turn our 'to do' list into a 'not today' list. Anyway, hopefully our weekly email is on one of your lists 😊

Have a good week and fingers crossed for more May sunshine.

Early Years and Childcare Service

CACHE Accredited Level 3 Early Years
SENCO Award

Congratulations to our fourth cohort of the Level 3 EY SENCo Award, all 18 delegates worked incredibly hard, their presentations at the end are always very inspiring. We have now trained over 70 CACHE Accredited Level 3 Early Years SENCo's in Gloucestershire.

We can now announce we will be running a fifth cohort of the Level 3 Early Years SENCO Award commencing in September 2025. On successful completion of the course and two assignment units involving both written and observational tasks, attendees will be awarded a CACHE accredited Level 3 Early Years SENCO Award. This course is suitable for childminders and practitioners who have at least one year's experience in the Special Educational Needs Coordinator role.

We are inviting Gloucestershire SENCOs to request a place on this course by completing the attached 'Expression of Interest' form and returning to eysadviseline@gloucestershire.gov.uk with the subject title 'Level 3 SENCO Award', no later than Friday 23rd May 2025.

The cost of this course is £300 which covers the assessor fees, all other training costs will be funded by GCC.

Local Government Association is calling for your views

Contribute to research on early years special educational needs and disabilities

The LGA have commissioned Isos Partnership to conduct a national survey of local providers (nurseries of all types, schools and childminders) to understand the issues from your perspective. The survey should take no more than 10 minutes to complete and most of the questions are multiple choice. The deadline for completion is 12noon on Wednesday 14th May 2025.

Data in the early years

Nesta are conducting a short survey, which should take no more than 10 minutes, to better understand how people working in the early years currently use data and how they think they could use data better. The survey link is here, and all questions in the survey are entirely optional, but there is a section about the data systems used.

CPD spotlight

This week we had a catch up with our colleagues in PATA and wanted to share some of their wonderful online CPD sessions.

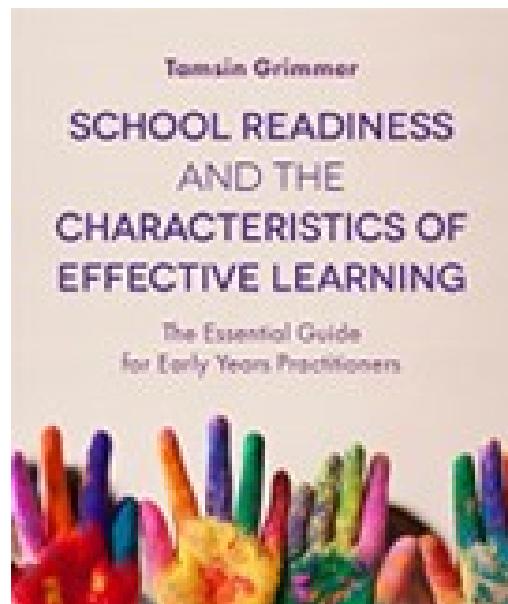

Liz Pemberton, The Black Nursery Manager, presents 'An Introduction to Anti-Racist Practice in the Early Years' 20th May 3:30pm – 5pm
<https://www.pataglos.org.uk/event-5938307>

Safer Eating (EYFS Reforms) – Monday 12th May 6:30pm – 8pm
<https://www.pataglos.org.uk/event-6043300>

If anyone is interested in our EYFS Safeguarding Reforms training (which is running this evening) or can't make the Safer Eating one on Monday night, PATA are currently gauging whether there is enough interest to run these again so anyone interested can email training@pataglos.org.uk to register their interest.

Book Corner

As your thoughts turn more and more to preparing your preschoolers for their transition to school you may find this guide for early years practitioners written by Tamsin Grimmer an interesting read. 'School readiness and the characteristics of effective learning' explores the concept of 'school readiness', ensuring schools are ready to receive children, and suggests ways in which early years providers can work collaboratively with schools and engage parents and carers to ensure a smooth transition for all children.
