

Provider Update 89 - October 2025

Dear Provider,

Whilst we visited lots of providers during 'International Week of Happiness at Work' it was great to see so many of you dedicating your time to creating supportive workplace environments for you and your teams.

Promoting a positive culture within your workforce, where staff well-being is prioritised, adds happiness to your setting, increases staff retention, and encourages your team to grow and thrive as individuals.

We've seen well-being baskets full of goodies in offices, sharing platters of fruit and cupcakes in staff rooms, and special staff mentions in newsletters to parents.

Keep up the great work everyone and we hope you all have a happiness-filled weekend too.

Are you Part of a Local Early Years Provider Network?

We have had several requests this term from providers wishing to become part of a local network of early years providers to share best practice. If you are already operating a local cluster meeting in your area, please do get in touch so we can share this information with your local colleagues and put them in touch with you.

If you know there is no established network in your local area, and you would like support to get one up and running, please do get in touch with the EY Quality Improvement team at EarlyYearsQuality@gloucestershire.gov.uk who would be delighted to help you.

This week we are sharing an opportunity to join a Cheltenham based meeting on Tuesday 4th November at the Oasis Centre, Cassin Drive, GL51 7SY, 6:15-7:30pm. To book your place, please email Millie.barnes@cheltenhamymca.com

CPD Spotlight - Early Education Gloucestershire

Last week Early Education Gloucestershire hosted a fantastic session for local educators all about phonological awareness skills which start to develop in the pre-school years and are really important for future literacy skills (reading and writing).
