

Due Regard for Permanent/Experimental TROs

The Council has a duty to give ‘due regard to’ the following three aims of the public sector equality duty (section 149 of the Equality Act 2010) during the development of the ‘policy’.¹

- Eliminate discrimination, harassment and victimisation and any other conduct prohibited by the ACT:
- Advance equality of opportunity between people who share a protected characteristic and people who do not share it; and
- Foster good relations between people who share a protected characteristic

An initial assessment against each of the protected groups is provided below – any issues highlighted through the consultation process will be considered and reported at the end of the consultation period.

|---|---|
| Scheme name | Waiting restrictions, Various Roads, South Cerney |
| Protected group | Challenge or opportunity considered and what we did |
| Age(A) | No negative or positive impact on this group has been identified at this time. |
| Disability (D) | The No Waiting proposals will not prevent Blue Badge Holders from waiting for a maximum of 3 hours if it is safe to do so. |
| Sex (S) | No negative or positive impact on this group has been identified at this time. |
| Race (including Gypsy & Traveller) (R) | No negative or positive impact on this group has been identified at this time. |
| Gender reassignment (GR) | No negative or positive impact on this group has been identified at this time. |
| Marriage & civil partnership (MCP) | No negative or positive impact on this group has been identified at this time. |
| Pregnancy & maternity (PM) | No negative or positive impact on this group has been identified at this time. |
| Religion and/or Belief (RAOB) | No negative or positive impact on this group has been identified at this time. |
| Sexual Orientation (SO) | No negative or positive impact on this group has been identified at this time. |

¹ For ‘policy’: any new and existing policy, strategy, services, functions, work programme, project, practice and activity. This includes decisions about budgets, procurement, commissioning or de-commissioning services, service design and implementation.
