Dear Childminders,

Welcome to your September Newsletter.

I hope you have had a lovely summer and enjoyed the sunshine. I am looking forward to visiting lots of Childminding settings this Autumn so please get in touch if you would like a relaxed, supportive visit.

In this newsletter there is information about a free play session for childminders and their minded children, reminders of the upcoming sessions on the new EYFS and inspection framework and booking information for the following few Childminder network meetings. The Stronger Practice Hub have lots of very interesting evening training available free to Gloucestershire Childminders and there is a reminder to keep your safeguarding declaration (previously Audit) updated.

This session will explore the basics of effective, authentic, meaningful interactions with children in the early years. We will cover what makes for quality interactions: the way we use our body and voice, how we listen, pause, and reflect on children's learning with them, how we can deepen their thinking, provoke new learning, and delight in the children's fascinations. We will use the quality interaction checklist to learn more about how to develop good practice, as well as guidance from the EEF Evidence Store.
