Hi [REDACTED]

I hope all is good with you.

Yes, that's absolutely fine, thanks.

Kind regards

Hi [REDACTED]

I hope you are well.

I am preparing to submit the above diversion order to the Planning Inspectorate. As part of the submission bundle, I need to include written consent from all affected landowners for the Planning Inspector to access their land.

Towards the end of the determination process, it is usual for the Inspector to visit the site to look at the existing footpath and the proposed diversion route on the ground. The Planning Inspectorate will usually provide advance notice of the site visit. In this case the Inspector will need to access your land to reach the definitive line of the footpath that runs along your driveway.

Could you please confirm in writing that you consent to the Inspector accessing your land, by email is fine.

Kind regards,

[REDACTED]
