Assessment

Prompt: use plain, caring, family-friendly language. Capture what people have said, not professional assumptions

3. What we know and what matters

About me what am I good at, what do people like about me? Tabby says she really enjoys playtime and likes her class teacher. She wants to be better at writing and wants to write stories. Tabby is enjoying school and is feeling happier about class room activities.	What help would I like? what I want to be different and what would help me? Tabby is a little behind in age related expectations for writing which is the reason for the plan.	Family voice what the family wants to change and what feels helpful? It is difficult to get Tabby to practice her writing at home; she struggles to concentrate
What has already been tried? support, adjustments, other plans and assessments in progress, informal help and impact so far Standard teaching approaches in the class room has had limited improvement	How will this plan improve our family's life? describe clear changes in everyday life. Tabby would be happier at school and everyone would be less worried.	Information sharing notes Consent, restrictions, privacy notice or minimum information sharing. NA

4. What is the child's story and why are we writing a plan?

Briefly describe what has led to this plan, using the child or young person's and family's own words wherever possible. Include strengths, what has changed, what people are worried about, significant events, what support has already been tried and why a coordinated plan is needed now.

Tabby has joined Albelarle School and has struggled with writing; she is much more confident using a tablet and her fine motor skills need to be developed.

Plan

Record the priority needs, outcomes and actions. Keep the plan focused on the few things that matter most
