

WW1 Soldiers Wills

Foreward

Gloucestershire Archives holds a collection of 84 annual Will Books containing around 53,000 copies of Wills that were proved at Gloucester between 1858 and 1941. Within the collection are a couple of hundred Wills of WW1 soldiers who served in various Regiments, the Wills that have been transcribed here are of those soldiers who were in the Gloucestershire Regiment (65) or the Royal Gloucestershire Hussars (6).

These soldiers Wills come in a variety of forms, some are just a few lines long, others are like a letter home to a loved one. Occasionally they have been written on the eve of deployment from England to the front, and a few were written whilst “in the field”. Most of them give some indication of what each soldier was thinking at the time he made his Will and many other soldiers were witnesses to the Will, quite often recorded with their service number and Regiment details.

To help understand more about these soldiers some further background research into their Military and Family History has also been done. These details have come from a number of sources including Military and Parish Records, Census Returns and Local Newspapers (Cheltenham & Gloucester).

THE LATE CAPTAIN IVAN R. GIBBS.

It is with very sincere personal regret that we have to record the death in action at the Front of Capt. Ivan Richard Gibbs, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gibbs, of 3, Montpellier Walk, and 2, Park Place, Cheltenham. The deceased officer was educated at Cheltenham Grammar School under the headmasterships of Mr. Style and Mr. Jones. While there he gained an Open Scholarship at Jesus College, Oxford, where he was in residence for nearly four years. From here he went to the Imperial College of Science and Technology, South Kensington (University of London), as Assistant Demonstrator in Science, and joined the Inns of Court O.T.C. On the outbreak of the War he was given a second-lieutenant's commission in the 10th Gloucesters, speedily gaining promotion to lieutenant. He received his captain's commission on his twenty-fourth birthday last July. He was a good all round athlete. The sympathy of his many Cheltenham friends will be feely accorded to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gibbs in their great trouble.

CAPT. J. R. GIBBS,

aged 24 years. He was the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs.
W. H. Gibbs, Montpellier-
walk, and 2 Park-place, Cheltenham, and his speedy promotion from second lieutenant last September proved what a capable and popular officer he was.

GIBBS, Ivan Richard Captain. 10th Battalion. Killed in action in France on 25th September 1915. Believed to be buried in St Mary's ADS Cemetery, Haisnes. Aged 24.

Ivan Richard Gibbs was born at Cheltenham on 6th July 1891. His parents, William Henry and Harriet Bessie Gibbs, resided at 2, Park Place, St James', Cheltenham. They had a business, Art Needlework Repositories, at 3, Montpellier Walk, Cheltenham.

He was educated at the Douglas School, Vittoria Walk, Cheltenham and, between 1898 and 1910, at Cheltenham Grammar School. He then attended Jesus College, Oxford, gaining a BA degree in 1913. He was subsequently appointed as Assistant Demonstrator in Science and Technology at South Kensington and also joined the Inns of Court Officer Training Corps. At the outbreak of war he immediately volunteered for active service and was appointed to a Temporary Regular Commission in the Gloucestershire Regiment on 19th September 1914.

He served with the battalion whilst it underwent training for war in the UK and he was promoted to Lieutenant on 3rd November 1914 and to Captain on 6th July 1915, being appointed as Officer Commanding No 1 Company. The battalion left No 6 Camp, Sutton Veny, near Warminster, on the morning of 8th August 1915 and was shipped to France from Southampton later the same day disembarking at Le Havre by 7am on the 9th August.

The battalion joined the 1st Infantry Brigade, 1st Division and underwent further training for field service and first entered the front line trenches, in front of Bethune, on 19th August 1915. The battalion was then ordered to prepare for action in the 1st Division attack to break through the German first, second and third lines, with the battalion's specific objective being the village of Hulloch. Following an artillery and gas bombardment the attack was delivered at 6.30am on 25th September 1915 with officers and men attacking over 400 yards of No Man's Land and through German wire entanglements. Immediately in front of the battalion were the remains of a small copse called "Bois Carree" and enemy observation posts and machine guns had been deployed here. Bois Carree had not been neutralised and as the battalion crossed No Man's Land, they suffered badly from sweeping enfilade fire. The battalion's War Diary reports that "The officers fell, as the position of their bodies showed, leading their men, and 16 out of 21 officers were lost. Captain Gibbs, as well as Capt J W C Tongue, Capt E H Moss, Capt E H Sale, Lt G W Robinson, Lt C A Symons, Lt H A Whiffin, Lt G G W Leary and 2Lt G W Field were killed and 2Lt P V N Neems died of wounds on 9th October 1915.

Capt Gibbs is believed to be buried in St. Mary's Advanced Dressing Station Cemetery, Haisnes, Special Memorial No A2. The Dressing Station was established during the Battle of Loos, and the cemetery named from it is at the same place. The cemetery was made after the Armistice, by the concentration of graves from the battlefield of Loos; the great majority of the graves are those of men who fell in September and October 1915.

His death was reported in The Times published on 20th October 1915 and he is commemorated on the Cheltenham War Memorial, the Cheltenham Grammar School Roll of Honour and the St James' Church, Cheltenham, Roll of Honour.

For conspicuous gallantry on the night of the 3rd-4th August, 1915, near Hebutterne, when, in command of a patrol he went out to reconnoitre in the direction of a suspected listening post. In advancing, he encountered the hostile post, evidently covering a working party in the rear. Cpl. Knight at once shot one of the enemy, and, with L./Cpl. Harvey, rushed the post, shooting two others, and assistance arriving the enemy fled. Three Germans were killed and their rifles and a Mauser pistol were brought in. The patrol had no loss. ### Wallace Charles Marsh

“A”

Sep 10 1914. This is the last wish of Wallace Charles Marsh. Should anything happen to me and I have no other chance of making my wishes known I would like everything to be given to my mother Sarah Marsh. My insurance in the Refuge Co. and my Club (Conservative Benefit Society) and all money deposited by me in the Post Office Savings Bank to be used in case of need for household expenses but to be deposited in mothers name until necessary. Any other of my belongings she will do as she thinks best with. I would advise her to go to the Rector for advice how to get the monies named here and his or some other gentleman's help she will be able to get the full amount in each case. Should my mother be dead before me my father would then take one half of the money and the other half would be divided between my two sisters Elsie and Ethel. I hope no eye but mine will ever read these lines but should my death occur during this war this is my last wish. Signed this day Sep.10 1914.

Wallace Charles Marsh

These hurried lines are written on the eve of my departure for Bristol to join the Kings Army and should my death occur I hope my country will see my mother and father will never want for the necessities of life. Leaving the issue of this war in God's hands I sign myself

Wallace Charles Marsh

“B”

July 14. 1915_Since writing the enclosed letter dated Sep 10 1914 I have thought that it would be better if all money that belongs to me should be taken charge of by my sister Ethel and she could see that my parents had what was necessary as long as they wanted anything or until the money was spent, if at the time of their deaths there is any left she could then give half to my sister but not for her Elsie to give to Her husband but to use herself for her own benefit, but this would only be done after both my father and mother have passed away. This is being written on the 14th of July 1915 the last day of my final leave and it's quite possible that I will be sent to the front at once. Should my death occur this is my last wish. And I hope it will be carried out as far as possible and now leaving the issue of this war in God's hands but trusting he will bring me through I sign myself

Dear Will & May

I am writing these few lines to let you know that I am off to France to join the 10th Glosters tomorrow morning (Wednesday). We were inspected by the General today and he shook hands with all of us. I have passed the Doctor and have got all my things ready. I will let you know directly I land my address. I have waited for the tonight but no letter came so I expect if you have replied it will be too late but it will be sent on to me. I am sorry I have not written before but I have been so busy with one thing & another, I am just going to the farewell concert now, I have not written to anyone else, I havn't had the time.

Dear Will, I hope I shall come back allright but if I don't will you do the following. If I am killed send all my clothes down to Bristol they will come in handy for my brothers. My insurance money which is due to me on my death I leave entirely to you Edward William Hacker or your wife Mary Elizabeth Hacker also all other moneys due to me from any source whatever for your own personal use after you have settled any debts owing by me to my creditors. I know I can trust you to do this, you had better keep this letter as a Will so as to show if anything does occur. You can keep my watch as a memento, don't send that to Bristol. I think that is all for now. Remember me to all the boys, also give my love to Will & Ivy, I will write to them later. I remain your old pal.
