For July absences, please add in last year's attendance certificate to show the absence and this year's certificate to show the pupil has returned.

Y2/Y6 pupils no longer on roll cannot have a penalty notice issued.
Y3/Y7 schools cannot request them on behalf of the previous school

Incorrect Absence Dates

Common Error in Absence Dates

Schools often record the final date of absence as the first date of a pupil's return to school, causing attendance inaccuracies.

This is often from the paperwork that the parents complete.

Check you ask for the first and last date of absence to support requesting a penalty notice.

Why Accurate Dates Matter

Legal Compliance Importance

Accurate dates ensure compliance with strict legal evidential checks.

Timely Requests

As soon as pupils return from their absence, a penalty notice should be requested, especially in Autumn Term 1.

Proceeding to Prosecution

There are 26 weeks from the first date of absence to lay the case before the court in the event of a non-payment for a penalty notice.

The 26-week calendar is crucial for timely management of attendance interventions to avoid missed deadlines.

Documentation and Attendance Recording

If you do not request a penalty notice immediately, then it risks being unable to proceed to court in the event of it not being paid.

Living our values every day

Key notes from Bulletin Board

- Check your attendance policy against our 'Paperwork Checklist for All Legal Disposals' available on Schoolsnet. Crucially, please ensure compliance with our legal non-negotiables. We request that you inform your Inclusion Officer of the update by October half term.
- Send a letter to parents to inform them that the absence is unauthorised and they may face a fine if they are absent for their requested holiday in addition to sending the back of the absence request form.
- Regularly log onto the Capita portal to check on your schools' cases. This term's volume means we are trying to keep ahead of unpaid PNs following the schools' closures and families wanting to contact you.
- Should you request a penalty notice for a pupil's unauthorised attendance within an improvement period as set out in the issued Notice to Improve, the parent(s)/carer(s) must be informed of the request and reasons for it ahead of the early request. Your notification must be added to the PN request.
