

Useful websites

www.goucestershire.gov.uk/archives

<http://vcp.e2bn.org/> - A site developed by the East of England Broadband Network, Cambridgeshire County Council and Bedfordshire County Council all about Victorian crime and punishment with lots of information.

<http://www.nationalarchives.gov.uk/education/candp/> - A site by the National Archives Education department full of detailed information and worked examples.

<http://www.nottingham.ac.uk/manuscriptsandspecialcollections/exhibitions/online/the-bawdy-court/introduction.aspx> - An online exhibition dealing with the nature and work of the Church 'Bawdy Courts' using archive documents.

<http://www.woodlands-junior.kent.sch.uk/Homework/tudors/other.htm> - A superb website for primary school children.

<http://www.elizabethan-era.org.uk/elizabethan-crime-and-punishment.htm> - Another good site dedicated to Elizabethan crime and punishment.

<http://grubstreet.rictornorton.co.uk/> - Early eighteenth century newspaper reports on crime.