

An alphabet poem

A is for apple, as red as a rose,
B is for butterfly which lands on your nose.
C is for cat - a secretive creature,
D is for dimple your cheek's best feature.
E is for elephant all wrinkled and grey,
F is for flower standing tall in the hay.
G is for grass, lush and green,
H is for hideaway - never to be seen.
I is for icicle hanging from a tree,
J is for joke, between you and me.
K is for kite flying high on a string,
L is for love to make your heart sing.
M is for matchstick burning with light,
N is for nightlight, glowing bright
O is for orange juicy and sweet
P is for pineapple which I love to eat
Q is for quince, shaped like a pear
R is for rabbit not unlike a hare
S is for silver, glittering cold
T is for treasure, buried and old
U for underground, dark and dim.
V for vole with whiskers so trim.
W is for wheat growing golden and fat
X is for X ray fish - not one that's flat
Y is for yoghurt a tasty treat
Z is for zebra - which is fast on its feet.