

SECONDARY MATHEMATICS

SUBJECT LEADER MEETINGS 2026/27

SOARING, NOT SINKING.
SUPPORTING ALL STUDENTS TO THRIVE AND ACHIEVE IN MATHEMATICS

AUTUMN TERM 2026

Wednesday 21 October
EVERY STUDENT HAVING THE BEST START

SPOTLIGHTS ON:

- Best Start in Secondary: Ensuring all students (Y7 – Y11) have the foundational knowledge and skills to thrive at secondary mathematics
- GCSE: Lessons from the summer 2026 series and looking forward to the opportunities with the introduction of curriculum 2028
- Inclusion: Are all students thriving and achieving in mathematics?
- Good Foundations for leading mathematics

GUEST SPEAKERS:

Examiners from the main GCSE
Exam Boards

SPRING TERM 2027

Wednesday 17 March
NATIONAL CHALLENGES,
LOCAL SOLUTIONS

SPOTLIGHTS ON:

- Problem Solving: Exploring the new problem solving framework and materials to support schools with the DfE Curriculum and Assessment Review recommendations for mathematics
- New EEF Mathematics Research: Exploring the new, updated EEF Guidance Report for Primary Mathematics

GUEST SPEAKERS:

Dr Helen Drury,
Dean of Maths Excellence
with Purposeful Ventures, Member of the Royal
Society's Advisory Committee on Mathematics Education, co-
lead the Maths Horizons and DfE
National Curriculum Drafter for Mathematics

Laura Spence,
Gloucestershire
Research School
Director

SUMMER TERM 2027

CROSS-PHASE CONFERENCE

Wednesday 23 June
WORLD CLASS CURRICULUM FOR
ALL: GETTING READY FOR 2028

SPOTLIGHTS ON:

- New National Curriculum: Exploring the new National Curriculum Programmes of Study for Mathematics
- Effective Implementation: Getting ready for September 2028: What are the leadership opportunities and contextual factors we need to consider for effective implementation of the new national curriculum?

GUEST SPEAKERS:

Charlie Stripp MBE,
NCETM Director,
MEI Chief Executive
and DfE National Curriculum Drafter
for Mathematics

Purchase the network package and book meetings at GCCPlus.org
For further information or support: GLOSSI@gloucestershire.gov.uk